

APOLYTIKION OF THE CIRCUMCISION OF OUR LORD YOU TOOK ON HUMAN FORM

January 1

First Tone

N. Takis

Moderato

You took on hu-man form, re-main-ing God with-out chang-ing your na-ture and your es-sence, O Lord, most com - pas-sion-ate. You then ful-filled the law, ac-cept-ing cir-cum-ci - sion in the flesh by your own will, that all sha - dows would be ban - ished, and the thick veil of our pas-sions you would then roll a - way.
Glo-ry un-to your good - ness; Glo - ry to your com - pas - sion.
Glo-ry to your in - ef - fa - ble con - de - scen - sion, O Lord.

v. 2.0